

Friday 10th April 2020, 5am – 5pm
Sydney Fish Market, Bank Street, Pyrmont, NSW 2009

Sydney Fish Market will proceed with its extended trading hours this Good Friday. Open from 5am – 5pm, Sydneysiders will have the opportunity to stock up on Easter staples such as visitors, for the benefit of all the community, will respond positively and respectfully adhere to the plans that have been put in place.”

Mr Dyer added, “We encourage Sydneysiders not to leave their Easter shopping to Good Friday and instead visit the market during the week or take advantage of our on-site retailers’ range of home delivery, pre-order or pick up services. These are excellent options and will ensure you’re able to enjoy fresh seafood this Easter while still observing isolation recommendations. Our website has more information regarding these options.”

Sydney Fish Market has all the essentials, housing a butcher, greengrocer, bakery and delicatessen in addition to its six wet fish retailers with free car parking and no daily purchase limits.

Regular trading hours (7:00am – 5:00pm) will be in place for the remainder of the weekend - Saturday 11th April – Monday 13th April though individual retailer hours may vary.

-ENDS-

- Vehicle entry and parking for Sydney Fish Market will be restricted to the Bank Street entrance only. Customers are advised to follow the direction of on-site security and signage.
- Light Rail to the ‘Fish Market’ stop will be operational on Good Friday,
- On-foot access to the precinct will be permitted via Bank Street (opposite the ‘Fish Market’ light rail stop) only.
- On demand ferry services will also operate on Good Friday. Travellers waiting on the boardwalk for vessels departing Sydney Fish Market must observe social distancing. For route and timetable information visit